

Commissioning and Start-Up

Wasco has the in-house capability to perform commissioning and start-up activities for on-shore/off-shore oil and gas installations. Adhering to the highest international safety standards our commissioning team has performed successful start-up of many processes and utility packages throughout the world.

We specialise in mechanical completion, pre-commissioning, no-load tests and commissioning of topside modules for FPSO, MOPU and Platforms.